

How to Get to Aikido Kobayashi Dojo

For those who have never been to Japan, we prepared the following information.
We wish you a safe trip to our dojo.

There are two international airports in Tokyo metropolitan area:

Narita International airport (NRT)
Tokyo Haneda International airport (HND)

Currently, Narita airport is the main international airport for Tokyo area.

After your arrival, go to airport bus ticket counter to buy a one-way bus ticket to Tokorozawa station.

From Narita airport, a one-way bus ticket costs 3,000 yen (Keisei Bus). From Haneda airport, it costs 1,500 yen (Airport Limousine Bus). When you buy a ticket, check when and which bus stop your bus is leaving from.

The bus first stops at Wako-shi station, then at Higashi-Tokorozawa station. DO NOT GET OFF AT THESE BUS STOPS. The final destination of the bus is Tokorozawa station east exit, and that is where you get off the bus.
